

THE TAYSIDE BIODIVERSITY ACTION PLAN

is available in libraries and selected council offices, museums, schools and colleges throughout the local authority areas of Angus, Dundee City and Perth and Kinross.

It may be viewed on: www.taysidebiodiversity.co.uk
A CD-ROM of the full Tayside BAP is available on request.

Catherine Lloyd: Tayside Biodiversity Co-ordinator
The Tayside Biodiversity Partnership
c/o Environment Services, Perth and Kinross Council Pullar House, 35 Kinnoull Street, Perth, PH1 5GD
e-mail: tayside.biodiversity@ukf.net

Who's Who in Tayside Biodiversity

Current Steering Group members include:

Angus Council, Dundee City Council, Forestry Commission, Farming and Wildlife Advisory Group, National Farmers' Union (Scotland), National Trust for Scotland, Perth and Kinross Council, Royal Society for the Protection of Birds, Scottish Agricultural Colleges, Scottish Executive Environment and Rural Affairs Department, Scottish Environment Protection Agency, Scottish Field Studies Association, Scottish Rural Property & Business Association, Scottish Natural Heritage, Scottish Wildlife Trust.

Sub-Groups

HABITATS: Coasts and Estuaries, Farmland, Upland, Urban, Water and Wetland, Woodland

There is also an Education Sub-Group and species groups such as the Barn Owl Interest Group and the Swift Interest Group. Membership of the Habitat Sub-Groups, Education Sub-Group, and Species Interest Groups is open to anyone with a wish to contribute towards the work of the appropriate group. If you would like further information about any of the groups, or would like to suggest the setting up of a new one, please contact the Biodiversity Co-ordinator.

Tayside Biodiversity Partnership

