

18th TAYSIDE RECORDERS' DAY

Saturday 3 October 2026, Montrose Museum

10.00 – 10.15	Doors open & registration (refreshments available mid-morning)
10.15 – 10.20	Welcome and introduction (morning Chair – Catherine Lloyd, TBP)
10.20 – 10.40	Talk 1: Research at Glen Prosen – Gareth Ventress, FLS
10.40 – 11.00	Talk 2: River South Esk: NRF project monitoring – David Hunt, RSPB
11.00 – 11.15	Q&A
11.15 – 11.35	Morning break with refreshments
11.35 – 11.55	Talk 3: NESBReC in Angus: New Records, Species Records of Note, Gaps to be Filled – Aileen Salway, NESBReC
11.55 – 12.15	Talk 4: BSBI app introduction/Angus LNCS update – Robin Payne
12.15 – 12.35	Talk 5: Angus Nature Networks – how data informs methodology – Anna Cowie, Angus Council
12.35 – 12.50	Q&A
12.50 – 13.40	Lunch break. Lunch is provided. All are welcome to enjoy the Tartan and Turmoil exhibition at the museum.
13.40 – 13.45	Welcome back (afternoon Chair – Anna Cowie)
13.45 – 14.05	Talk 6: Project Seagrass – Lyle Boyle
14.05 – 14.20	Talk 7: Counting pinkfeet: Goose monitoring at Montrose Basin – Anna Cowie
14.20 – 14.35	Q&A
14.35 – 14.55	Afternoon break with refreshments
14.55 – 15.10	Talk 8: Northern Damselfly in Tayside – Daniele Muir
15.10 – 15.20	Talk 9: Slow worms – Cally Ullman-Smith
15.20 – 15.40	Talk 10: Angus Coastal Towns Swifts Project – Daniele Muir
15.40 – 15.55	Q&A and final comments from attendees
15.55 – 16.00	Round up of the 18th Tayside Recorders' Day – Catherine Lloyd
16.00 – 16.15	Depart – Doors close 16.15

Tayside Biodiversity Partnership

