

SITA TAYSIDE BIODIVERSITY ACTION FUND

Nov 2006

List of funded projects

Organisations	Projects	Amounts	Summary & progress	Contacts
Forest Research	Small Cow-Wheat Species Recovery Project (Perth and Kinross)	11,200	Habitat creation to recover small cow wheat by collecting of small cow wheat seeds from 3 donor sites within Scotland and have them sown on 3 sites within Perth and Kinross. Project completed	Alice Broome, Alice.broome@forestry.gsi.gov.uk
Forest Research	Small Cow-Wheat Species Recovery Project phase 2 (Perth and Kinross)	11,900	Habitat creation to recover small cow wheat by collecting of small cow wheat seeds from 3 donor sites within Scotland and have them sown on 2 sites within Perth and Kinross. Project in progress	Alice Broome, Alice.broome@forestry.gsi.gov.uk
Broughty Ferry Environmental Project	Following the Water of Life (Dundee)	5,100	Project focuses on the theme of water, both in terms of the habitats it provides and the species it supports. The project designs, plans and build an amphibian over wintering habitat to a local pond located at Broughty Ferry Library. Project completed	Ann Lolley, Environ.projects@dundee.gov.uk
Forest Research	Juniper Natural Regeneration Management Trials (Perth and Kinross)	6,314	Habitat management to regenerate juniper which is a UKBAP priority species. The project monitors the impact of summer grazing by cattle at two identified sites. Project in progress	Alice Broome Alice.broome@forestry.gsi.gov.uk
Angus Council	Artificial Sand Martin Bank (Angus)	10,029	Habitat creation through the construction of artificial sand martin bank within Crombie Country Park. Project completed	Tom McGrath, moniekpark@sol.co.uk
Tay Ringing Group	Saving Tayside's Ring Ouzels (Angus)	1,065	Radio tracking of Ring Ouzels, a rapidly declining red list species Project completed	Les Hatton les@lydox.fsnet.co.uk

Organisations	Projects	Amounts	Summary & progress	Contacts
Tay Ringing Group	Tay Reedbed Habitat Management (Perth and Kinross)	1,890	The ringing of various species of birds that use the River Tay reedbeds. The species targeted for ringing are Reed bunting, Bearded tit, Sedge warbler and Swallow. Project in progress	Les Hatton les@lydox.fsnet.co.uk
RSPB Scotland	Tay Reedbeds Biodiversity Enhancement Project (Perth and Kinross)	26,000	The Tay reedbeds contain 15% of the British reedbed resource. The project will conserve the reedbeds which support populations of Bearded tits, Water rail, Sedge warbler, Marsh harrier and Reed bunting. Project in progress	Gregg Wilkie Gregg.wilkie@rspb.org.uk
Angus Council	Lilybank Bio-diverse garden (Angus)	6,000	Creation of a biodiverse garden in the grounds of an Adult Resource Centre Project in progress	Pierre Bernard Swd_lilybankarc@angus.sol.co.uk
Tay Ringing Group	Marsh Harrier Management (Perth and Kinross)	3,400	The purchase of two satellite tags to track Marsh harrier movements and raise awareness Project completed	Les Hatton les@lydox.fsnet.co.uk
Dundee City Council	Dundee Red Squirrel project (Dundee)	14,750	Control of Grey squirrels, and the setting up of supplementary feeding stations to improve breeding success of Red squirrels Project in progress	Julie Sturrock juliesturrock@dundee.gov.uk
Angus & Tayside Conservation Group	Little tern Breeding protection (Angus)	3,468	Provision of warden service during Little tern breeding season Project completed	Mechelle Coutts 01674 676336
Dundee City Council	Dundee Biodiversity Garden (Dundee)	4,500	Creation of a biodiverse garden providing nesting/roosting/hibernating boxes and bird tables and plants to attract invertebrates. Project in progress	John Porter John.porter@dundee.gov.uk
Broughty Ferry Environmental Project	Following the Water of Life Phase 2 (Dundee)	6,890	Project focuses on the theme of water, both in terms of the habitats it provides and the species it supports. The project designs, plans and build an amphibian over wintering habitat to different local ponds located within Broughty Ferry/east Dundee are. Project in progress	Ann Lolley, Environ.projects@dundee.gov.uk
Nature Bureau projects	Dundee Bat Project (Dundee)	9,660	Survey and monitoring of bats will enable the Bat Conservation Trust, in conjunction with the local bat group, to survey sites used by pipistrelle bats and how they can be improved.	Suzanne Marshall post@naturebureau.co.uk