

THE 14TH TAYSIDE RECORDERS' DAY

This event is organised by the Tayside Biodiversity Partnership and supported by the TBP and Culture Perth & Kinross

Saturday, 24th September 2022 - 10.15am to 4.45pm

Perth Museum & Art Gallery, George Street, Perth

PROGRAMME

10.15am	Museum Doors open at 10am. Refreshments will be available.
10.30am	Welcome to the 14 th Recorders' Day	Chair for Morning - Mark Simmons, Culture Perth & Kinross
10.40am	Conserving the Northern Brown Argus Butterfly in Tayside	David Hill, Butterfly Conservation Scotland
11.00am	The Urban Flora Project – What Grows in your Street?	Brian Ballinger, Botanical Society of Scotland
11.20am	The NBN Better Biodiversity Data Project – Planning and Delivery	Lisa Chilton, National Biodiversity Network
11.40am	Question & Answer Session	Mark Simmons
12 noon	Brief Comfort Break
12.15pm	“Ecosystem Explorers” – Protecting Habitats to Support the Wildlife that Relies on Them	Samantha Suter, University of Glasgow
12.35pm	Monitoring and Recording Wildlife at the Rewilding Denmarkfield Project, Luncarty	Ellie Corsie, Rewilding Denmarkfield
12.55pm	Question & Answer Session	Mark Simmons
1.15pm	A free sandwich lunch will be available at the Museum (including vegan and vegetarian options)
2.15pm	Welcome back	Chair for Afternoon – David Lampard, Leisure & Culture Dundee
2.15pm	The Perth Museum Garden BioBlitz – an Introduction to iNaturalist	Mark Simmons, Perth Museum
2.25pm	Launch of the ‘Every Action Counts’ Tayside iNaturalist Project	Catherine Lloyd, Tayside Biodiversity Partnership
2.30pm	Scottish Dragonflies and Damselflies – Update	Daniele Muir, British Dragonfly Society
2.50pm	Question & Answer Session	David Lampard, Leisure & Culture Dundee
3.05pm	Refreshments (and networking)
3.30pm	From the Angus Glens to the Coast via Ninewells, Dundee - Discovering Rannoch Brindled Beauty and other Moths	David Lampard, Angus County Moth Recorder
3.45pm	General Citizen Science Updates	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Daniele Muir, Perthshire Wildlife • Jean Oudney, Tayside Bat Group • Claire Pumfrey, Buglife (recording) • Jim Cook, Tayside & Fife Fungi Group • Annie Ives, Bumblebee Conservation Trust
3.55pm	• Brilliant Beavers
4.05pm	• All Things Batty in Tayside
4.10pm	• Strathmore B-Lines: People & Pollinators
4.20pm	• Tayside Fungi Update
4.20pm	• Skills for Bees – Saving the Sound of Summer
4.30pm	Question & Answer Session with Round Up of the 14th Recorders' Day	David Lampard
4.45pm	Depart (Museum shuts at 5pm sharp)

